THIS MONTH IN HISTORY

November 7, 1805

After a perilous journey of nearly 4,000- miles, Bro. Meriwether Lewis and Bro. William Clark and their expedition across the US arrived at the Pacific Ocean. The expedition left Fort Mandan on the upper Missouri River on April 7 in six canoes and two large piroques. Bro. Clark was variously a member of Virginia City Lodge No. 1, Morning Star Lodge No. 5, Helena, and Deer Lodge No. 14, Deer City, MT. He was Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Montana in 1877. Bro. Lewis was raised at Door to Virtue Lodge No. 44, Albermarle County, VA in 1797. Door to Virtue went dark in 1801 and Bro. Lewis transferred to Staunton Lodge, Staunton, VA where he received the Royal Arch degree.

November 18, 2004

Five lodges were instituted and consecrated by the Grand Lodge of Ireland into The Sovereign Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of Malta.

GLOSSARY – Fraternity

The word was originally used to designate those associations formed in the Roman Catholic Church for the pursuit of special religious and ecclesiastical purposes, such as the nursing of the sick, the support of the poor, the practice of particular devotions, etc. They do not date earlier than the thirteenth century.

The name was subsequently applied to secular associations, such as the Freemasons. The word is only a Latin form of the Anglo-Saxon Brotherhood.

A STINKING MEETNG

Pioneer Lodge located at Somerset, Massachusetts, recently overserved its centennial. One of the old records had the following notation:

“At his point the Worshipful Master interrupted the meeting to ascertain the source and character of certain obnoxious gases irritating the olfactories and apparently emanating from the culinary regions below. Upon investigation by the Inside Sentinel it was found that certain hydrocarbons were pouring from incompletely closed jets. The correction of the condition was immediate; no damage was done; no one indicted for dereliction of duty, and the deliberations resumed.”

QUOTE OF THE MONTH

Masonry without its ritual would no longer be Masonry, and would quickly wither and die. It's the ritual that holds men to Masonry, whether they are active or inactive.

DID YOU KNOW?

Founder of "Haagen-Dazs" A Freemason

The Mattus (mat-is) family has been in the ice cream business through four generations spanning more than 80 years. During this time the family had many product successes but one truly stands out among the rest. Haagen-Dazs®.

Before Reuben Mattus created Haagen-Dazs®, ice cream was a frozen commodity sold for 50 cents a gallon. It was a summer time product that tasted nothing like the rich, creamy, old fashioned ice creams that were homemade. Mattus knew things could be different. He was born into a family whose homemade ices business grew into a popular treat. Mattus and his bride, Rose worked together in the business to create products which could be purchased at hundreds of local "Mom & Pop" candy stores. As the small corner stores began to fade away, Mattus made the transition to selling his ices and ice cream products to supermarkets. He was the first ice cream producer to use special low rounded pint containers, color keyed to flavors. He was the first to distribute Popsicles and other ice cream novelties on a grand scale. In 1959, the ice cream he was working on for a decade was ready for market. It was made strictly from fresh cream, egg yolks, and other superior ingredients. He called it Haagen-Dazs®. The late founder of Haagen-Dazs Ice Cream, Brother Reuben Mattus was a Master Mason in good standing for 53 years in Girard Perfect Ashlar Lodge No. 604, (now known as Scotia Lodge No. 634) in New York City.

MASONRY SPEAKS TO THE NEW MASON

You have tonight become a Master Mason.

I have given you all that I can give in ritual lectures and symbolism. What I give you from this point on will depend upon your willingness to sacrifice, to work and to learn...

In your work or profession you may attain great success. But the greatest satisfaction you will have in life will come from the living of my principles and teachings. If you strive diligently, I will show the way to the greatest of all wisdom, the path that leads to the knowledge of self.

If you attend my meetings regularly; if you will make me a vital part of your life; if you learn and share what you learn with your Brothers, you will discover the secret of happiness.

If you use my Working Tools wisely, you will build a Temple that will defy the onslaught of time.

Into your hands tonight I have placed our age-old secrets, our honored traditions, our sacred heritage.

All of this I do with complete confidence that you will think, act, and live as a Master Mason.

Dewey H. Woolstein, Masonic Messenger
